THE GOSPEL READING Sunday 18 September

14th Sunday after Trinity

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Luke, chapter 16: 1 – 13

Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus told his disciples: 'There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions. <sup>2</sup> So he called him in and asked him, "What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer."

<sup>3</sup> 'The manager said to himself, "What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I'm not strong enough to dig, and I'm ashamed to beg – <sup>4</sup> I know what I'll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses."

<sup>5</sup> 'So he called in each one of his master's debtors. He asked the first, "How much do you owe my master?"

'The manager told him, "Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifteen hundred."

<sup>7</sup> 'Then he asked the second, "And how much do you owe?"

"Thirty tons of wheat," he replied.

'He told him, "Take your bill and make it twenty-four."

<sup>8</sup> 'The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light. <sup>9</sup> I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.

<sup>10</sup> 'Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. <sup>11</sup> So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? <sup>12</sup> And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own?

<sup>13</sup> 'No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you O Christ

MESSAGE FROM REVD MICHELE

THANK YOU – a huge thank you for last Sunday's celebration of my retirement. It was a truly wonderful occasion - lovely food, good wine and above all great company! Special thanks to those who worked behind the scenes to make it go so well, and those set up and cleared away afterwards.

I am very touched by your generous gift and will be thinking carefully about how to put it to best advantage – something(s) that will delight us, bring us joy and help us to remember you as we enter retirement. A hammock for the garden springs to mind, but sadly there are no perfectly placed coconut palms. Or better still, perhaps we will go in search of those perfectly placed coconut palms!

You will always have a special place in my heart.
With my love and prayers
Michele

MESSAGES FROM THE CHURCHWARDENS

FREDA SATTLER

For many years, Freda (Carole Tillott's sister) has travelled regularly from Hemel Hempstead to attend services at Holy Cross. Following a number of unexplained blackouts, Freda has, with great sadness, decided that the time has come for her to give up driving. Regretfully, this means that she will no longer be able to come to church in Sarratt. Freda sends her love to everyone and her appreciation of the time she has spent with us. Please hold Freda in your prayers as she adjusts to new limitations on her travel.

CAN YOU HELP?

We need a team of helpers please to create the flower and produce decorations in St Paul's Church for our upcoming Harvest. We would be grateful for help, produce, flowers and any financial contribution towards Harvest. Please contact Jenny Laurie on jenny\_laurie@hotmail.com to let her know if you are free.
